Investment Strategy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The investment policy of this Fund is to purchase a broad market coverage of equity and equity-related securities including, without limitation, common stock, preferred stock and depositary receipts of larger companies associated with emerging markets, which may include frontier markets (emerging market countries in an earlier stage of development) (the "Approved Markets"). The Fund may gain exposure to companies associated with emerging markets by purchasing securities, which may be listed or traded outside the issuer's domicile country.</li> <li>• Securities of Approved Markets may include securities of companies in Approved Markets that may also have business relationships or operations or sales in countries outside the Approved Markets.</li> <li>• Securities are considered large cap stocks primarily based on market capitalisation. A company's market capitalisation is the number of its shares outstanding times its price per share. The eligible universe of securities that the Fund intends to invest in will generally comprise the largest companies within each Approved Market, collectively representing 80% to 90% of each Approved Market, although these parameters will vary from country to country and may also change from time to time.</li> <li>• In addition, investments held by the Fund may include collective investment schemes, American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs"), International Depositary Receipts ("IDRs") and Non-Voting Depositary Receipts ("NVDRs") which the Investment Manager considers are consistent with the objectives of the Fund. The Fund may obtain exposure to the securities of companies in Russia through investment in ADRs and IDRs. NVDRs are depositary receipts typically issued by a bank or exchange affiliate that do not hold voting rights to the underlying security.</li> <li>• The Fund may invest up to 20% in global developed countries (though this percentage may be higher, for short periods, where the Investment Manager deems it necessary to achieve equity exposure for the Fund, pending making investments in emerging market securities or paying out redemptions).</li> <li>• The Investment Manager does not currently intend to hedge any foreign currency exposure in any non-Base Currency Class. For efficient portfolio management purposes the Fund may acquire futures and forward foreign currency contracts. It is not the Fund's current intention to utilise any derivative instruments other than forward foreign currency contracts and futures. The Fund may use repurchase agreements for efficient portfolio management purposes.</li> </ul>	Refer to Appendix 14 of the Singapore Prospectus and the section headed "Investment Objectives and Policies" of the Ireland Prospectus for further information on the investment strategy of the product.
Parties Involved
WHO ARE YOU INVESTING WITH? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Company is Dimensional Funds plc.</li> <li>• The Manager is Dimensional Ireland Limited.</li> <li>• The Investment Managers are Dimensional Fund Advisors Ltd., Dimensional Fund Advisors LP, DFA Australia Limited, Dimensional Fund Advisors Pte. Ltd. and Dimensional Japan Limited.</li> <li>• The Depositary is State Street Custodial Services (Ireland) Limited.</li> </ul>	Refer to paragraph 2 "Management and Administration of the Company" of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on these entities and what happens if they become insolvent.
KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its dividends or coupons (if any) may rise or fall. An investment in the Fund is meant to produce returns over the long term. You should not expect to obtain short term gains from such an investment. You should consider the risks of investing in the Fund, which may cause you to lose some or all of your investment.	Refer to paragraph 6 "Risks" of the Singapore Prospectus and the section headed "Special Considerations and Risk Factors" of the Ireland Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.
Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are exposed to market risk. The investments of the Fund are subject to normal market fluctuations and the risks inherent in investment in local and international securities markets and there can be no assurances that appreciation or preservation will occur.</li> </ul>

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are exposed to equities risk. Funds investing in equities tend to be more volatile than funds investing in bonds, but also offer greater potential for growth. The value of the underlying investments in the Fund may fluctuate quite dramatically in response to the activities and results of individual companies, as well as in connection with general and economic conditions.</li> <li>• You are exposed to foreign exchange risk. Where the Fund engages in foreign exchange transactions which alter the currency exposure characteristics of its investments the performance of the Fund may be strongly influenced by movements in exchange rates as currency positions held by the Fund may not correspond with the securities positions held. The NAV per Share of the Fund will be computed in its Base Currency whereas the investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in other currencies. The Fund's NAV may change significantly when such other currencies strengthen or weaken against the Base Currency. The Investment Manager implements a passive hedging strategy to hedge the foreign currency exposure.</li> </ul>
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Fund is not listed in Singapore and there is no secondary market for its Shares. You can only redeem your investment on a Dealing Day through the Fund.</li> <li>• You are exposed to liquidity risk. Liquidity risk exists when particular portfolio investments are difficult to purchase or sell. To the extent that the Fund holds illiquid investments, the Fund's performance may be reduced due to an inability to sell the investments at opportune prices or times.</li> </ul>
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are exposed to emerging market countries risk. Numerous emerging market countries have a history of, and continue to experience serious and potentially continuing, economic and political problems. Stock markets in many emerging countries are relatively small and risky and expensive to trade in. Additional restrictions may be imposed under emergency conditions. Emerging market securities may decline or fluctuate because of economic and political actions of emerging market governments and less regulated or liquid securities markets. Investors holding the securities are also exposed to emerging market currency risk. The risks of investing in emerging market countries are magnified in frontier market countries as they generally have smaller economies or less developed capital markets.</li> <li>• You are exposed to custodial risk. As the Fund may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Fund which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians in circumstances where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risk.</li> <li>• You are exposed to political and/or regulatory risks. The value of the assets of the Fund may be affected by uncertainties such as international political developments, changes in government policies, taxation, restrictions on foreign investment and currency repatriation, currency fluctuations and other developments in applicable laws and regulations.</li> <li>• You are exposed to settlement risk. The Fund may be exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom it trades securities, and may also bear the risk of settlement default. Shareholders should also note that settlement mechanisms in emerging market countries are generally less developed and reliable than those in more developed countries and that this therefore increases the risk of settlement default, which could result in substantial losses for the Fund in respect of investments in emerging market countries, and that the securities of companies domiciled in emerging market countries are less liquid and more volatile than those domiciled in more developed stock markets and this may result in fluctuations in the price of the Shares.</li> <li>• You are exposed to risks in investing in value stocks. Securities are considered value stocks primarily because a company's shares (in the Investment Manager's view) have a high book value in relation to their market value. This may be as a result of poor business prospects or financial weakness. Value stocks may include companies with higher-than-average vulnerability to financial distress or even bankruptcy. The prices of this type of security may perform differently from the market as a whole and following a value oriented investment strategy may cause the Fund, at times, to underperform other funds that use other investment strategies.</li> <li>• You are exposed to derivatives risk. The Fund may use futures, forward currency contracts, options and swaps for efficient portfolio management purposes including for hedging against market movements, currency exchange or interest rate risks or otherwise. The Investment Manager's ability to use these strategies may be limited by</li> </ul> market conditions, regulatory limits, legal risk, where the enforceability of a financial derivative instrument contract may be an issue, settlement risk and tax considerations. Hedging with derivatives may increase expenses, and there is no guarantee that a hedging strategy will work. While hedging can reduce or eliminate losses, it can also reduce or eliminate gains or cause losses if the market moves in a manner different from that anticipated by the Fund or if the cost of the derivative outweighs the benefit of the hedge.
